

XM radio provides a valuable service in providing traffic and weather information. Especially on long trips we use XM and this is when you need traffic information most. This is a safety issue as well--without the traffic and weather information we could be driving into a storm or other bad weather and not have advance notice to reroute. Please do not let the other stations stifle XM's ability to carry this vital information to the public. Sincerely,
Dr. Susan Friedman